Although the personnel and staff at BankPlus have always been great, I am disappointed in BankPlus. When I opened my accounts at BankPlus, there were an abundance of branches, they were open extended hours during the week and on weekends, and they were the bank that went above and beyond the norm. Sadly, this is no longer the case. BankPlus has become just another bank, with bankers hours that are not convenient for me. The branches that were always open and nearby are closing and it seems that they no longer put in effort to set themselves apart. After all the things that used to set it apart, it's become just another bank. My local branch is set to close in a few days, and I'm ready to find a new bank that provides service the way BankPlus used to do.
